Fard

Designer: Giuseppe Viganò

Rigorous and geometric in their lines, elegant and refined in their use of materials, the Fard coffee tables are useful in a refined and discreet way. The overall profile is in fact clean and shaped in order to be slim, minimalist and essential. Characterised by a rectangular or square top, made of heat-treated oak or in the original clay finish, they are particularly elegant thanks to the thin painted metal frame, available various colours. The Fard collection includes six elements proposed in different heights and sizes, all variations of the same rigorous geometric design. The individual coffee tables can be used individually next to a sofa or bed or, even better, in combination with each other, to add dynamism to the environment.
